

$8000 Smile Makeover with Momdot

Over the past year I have been talking to you about how my smile changed my life. If you have missed any of those posts, you can get caught up with a few of those here:

- It's never too late for Braces

As you can see when I was younger I spent a lot of time, wasted time, not smiling. Fake smiling. Not letting my true self show and I am not the only one that has done that. Between the awkward kid years, the REALLY awkward teen years and the un-confident adult years, I was through with being that girl.

I let my smile always fall to the way side.

Then around 26 years old I decided to change that. If I wanted to smile and smile confidently, I needed to get braces. And with the support of my husband I stepped into adult braces. I ended up choosing Damon because my orthodontist recommended them as perfect for my teeth. He let me know that my teeth would move faster than with ordinary braces and that I would not require any extractions.

Can you guess in which pictures I have braces on and in which I don't?

Here is about a month after I finally got my braces off!

And now, about 6 years later, it's hard to catch me WITHOUT a full smile!

And it's a good thing because I have some very important reasons TO smile and keeping my smile hidden wouldn't be a good message for these kids!

But aside from all the confident boosting and change did for me, I am really excited to announce that in partnership with Damon Smile and MomDot, I am giving away a SMILE MAKEOVER for one lucky reader! How is THAT for a fantastic holiday season and a NEW YOU!
